May 1877

Received of Joseph A Burke, executor of the will of Lucy S Buckley one ninth of the property of the said Lucy, remaining after the payment of the legacies in said will mentioned before the residuary clause, the said 1/9 being due me under the following clause in said will.

"I bequeath the remaining one third to the heirs of my sister Roseanna (deceased) to be equally divided amongst them. I mean by the heirs of my sister Roseanna, her children."
